

Chaplaincy Chat

Forgiven and Forgotten

A much loved minister of God once carried a secret burden of a long past sin buried deep in his heart. He had committed the sin many years before. No knew what he had done, but they did now he had repented. Even so, he had suffered years of remorse over the incident,

A woman in his church deeply loved God and claimed to have visions in which Jesus Christ spoke to her. The minister, skeptical of her claims, asked her. “The next time you speak to the Lord, would you please ask Him what sin your minister committed while he was in seminary.” The woman agreed.

When she came to the church a few days later the minister asked. “Did He visit you” She said, “Yes.” “And did you ask Him what sin I committed in seminary?” “Yes, I asked Him,” she replied. “Well, what did He say?” “He said “I don’t remember.”

The forgiveness we receive in Christ is complete. As far as God is concerned, our sin is over with and forgotten. We must learn to rest in His forgiveness and release the guilt and shame of our sin. Then we can walk in the assurance of our salvation and experience God’s rest and peace.

Psalms 103:11-12 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is God mercy toward them that fear Him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us.

“WE CARE”