Christmas In A Nutshell

*The angle spreads its golden wings,
To descend from high above.
A special journey that is made,
To destine unbound love.*

*For this was a special day,
That history records.
The day that Christ was born of flesh,
To settle our sin's score.*

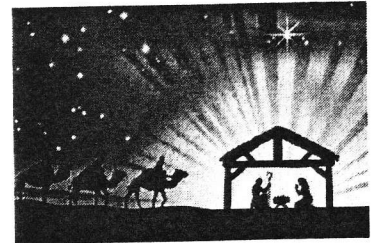

*Celebrations across the world,
Acknowledge this is true.
The saviour for the mild and meek,
His life he gave for you.*

*The gifts we give cannot compare,
With his gift for us.
So precious and so wonderful,
Given without a fuss.*

*Some don't see there is a gift,
It's not boxed with a bow.
They pass it by in disbelief,
While others do not know.*

*We are given many a chance,
To accept his gift of life.
Signs abound to show the way,
To keep us out of strife.*

*So open up your wondering heart,
And let it overflow.
With joy and love to all you meet,
So he can touch their soul*
