

UAW Local 551

By-Laws

Preamble

We, the workers who come under the jurisdiction of Amalgamated UAW Local 551, do maintain and believe that all men and women are created equal. On this premise of equality, we have the inalienable right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. In this pursuit of a full life, the workers have realized that we must organize to obtain the greatest measure of protection and expression.

We cannot, and shall not, rest upon our laurels now, ours is the task to educate ourselves and our brothers and sisters, to perpetuate ourselves and our Union; ours is the duty to take each others welfare at heart, providing social laws to ease the burden of seasonable employment discharge of misfortune; ours is the mission to reduce the hours of labor in step with technical and scientific improvements.

We, as organized workers shall speak to management through our democratically elected representatives, with confidence in the ability of both parties to establish a harmonious and mutual satisfactory employee employer relationship. We do not ask of management what is properly in the sphere of management; each workers contribution is the skill of his hands, the wealth of his mind and the health of his body.

All we seek is that we have a voice in the decisions that effect our welfare, so that we may remain contented and useful members of society and of all this glorious country. To secure these ideals to ourselves and our posterity, we do ordain and establish these by-laws.

This Local Union subscribes to the objects as set forth in the International Union Constitution, and UAW Local Union 551 will strive to set as great an example of effectiveness as any Local Union.

Whenever, in these by-laws a pronoun is used it refers equally, where the reference is applicable, to both men and women in the singular and in the plural.
